To ensure that you get the best price when you are buying a Cheap DVD or VHS film and DVD player, and see what the cheapest prices are for the DVD and VHS, as well as the DVD player itself. I've been through the usual channels, PC World and Currys, and there's a lot of 'cheap' DVD players, but the prices were too high. So I went to the sources, the second hand shops, and they were about to rip me off, so I went online to try and find bargains. I had no idea that there were so many 'cheap' DVD players on the market, or even that there were any, but I went to the distributor of the cheapest DVD player on the market, and that was a company called 'Easyworship'. The Easyworship brand in the UK is controlled by a company called 'Bulldog Distribution' in the USA. I've been to the Easyworship site, and they're offering a cheap DVD player, which is ideal for this review, and it's called the 'Easyworship 6', or just the 'Easyworship'. There's also a CD player and radio, and a game controller. This gives you all of the functions of a DVD player in a box! The price is about £80. Not cheap, but it's a bargain if you want a DVD player, CD player and radio, all in one box. It's definitely a good product for the money, it works quite well, and has a very attractive design and build quality. When you turn it on you get a simple user interface on the display, and this allows you to select and play back CDs. It's got an automatic 'sleep timer' which is ideal for keeping your eyes open whilst you're watching a DVD, and for DVD or VCD players, it will automatically switch you over to the next DVD when the DVD ends. It's got an external aerial socket, so you can place it anywhere in the house, and it has two RCA sockets, a composite video and a colour video jack. The Easyworship 6 is a 5.1 home cinema system, with six channels, and it also has an integrated headphone amplifier, an FM tuner, and also a USB input for easy music and mp3 playback.
